

2025 AAD Annual Meeting Registration Scholarship

<https://www.aad.org/member/career/awards/meeting-scholarship>

The 2025 AAD Annual Meeting Registration Scholarship program is open, with a limit of two applicants per country. Offered to dermatologists from countries outside the United States and Canada, scholarship recipients receive:

- Waiver of the non-member registration fee for the 2025 AAD Annual Meeting March 7th-11th in Orlando, Florida, USA
- Admission to one ticketed half-day course
- Invitation to attend the International Scholarship Reception and Dinner with AAD leadership on Thursday, March 6th, 2025
- Invitation to attend the International Member Reception on Friday, March 7th, 2025

If you are a dermatologist interested in this scholarship program, please contact your National Dermatologic Society to procure a nomination. We ask that officers of dermatologic societies complete a nomination form for each of their nominees at <https://aad.secure-platform.com/a/solicitations/1312/home>. All nominations must be submitted through this link to be considered (no emails).

The criteria for scholarship applicants are as follows:

- Must be a board-certified dermatologist
- Nominated by their National Dermatologic Society. (Individuals must be nominated by their National Dermatologic Society. Self-nominations will not be accepted.)
- Only two applicants per country
- Have a letter of recommendation signed from an officer of a national dermatologic society (PDF format preferred) attached to the online application.(mdtszeged@gmail.com)
- Has not received an in-person international scholarship from the AAD in the past

Applicants will be contacted in October 2024 regarding the status of their applications. The deadline to submit applications and nominations for the 2025 meeting is August 3rd, 2024.

Please contact Sami Patel at sapatel@aad.org if you have any questions.
